SAS/FSP® software provides convenient, full-screen interactive facilities for data entry, editing, retrieval and letter writing. With SAS/FSP software, users can generate personalized form letters for mail-merge applications, customize data presentation screens, create data entry applications that include cross validation of field values, table look up and other data manipulations.