

Media Select Panel

Data Rescue supports several different operations that can be performed on your media (e.g. a disk device or volume, etc.), such as File Scan, Clone, etc. Before you can perform any of these operations, you must first select the media for Data Rescue to operate on.

To do this, click the Select... button, which will bring up a list of devices and volumes from which to choose.