Using 'Register' application

. Double click the "Register by Mail/Email/Fax" application that come together with Extension Overload.
or
If you like to pay online, Kagi accepts Mastercard, Visa, American Express, Discover, Optima, JCB and Diners Card. For normal connection. Please visit http://order.kagi.com/cgi-bin/register1.cgi?U4Y
If your browser supports it, you can use the Secure SSL version of the registeration form at https://order.kagi.com/cgi-bin/r1.cgi?U4Y&&lang=en
If you choose to register online then you can ignore the following steps.

. When you launch the program, a window appears asking for all the necessary information. If you have previously registered a program through Kagi your personal information will appear, double check to see that it is right. If not, please key in Your name at field number 1
Email account at field number 2 (if you have one)
Number of copy of Extension Overload you want to purchase at field number 3
Postal address at field number 4.
If you feel that the program is worth more than the registration fee, you can add an optional bonus in the 'Bonus US$' box (field number 5), Thanks you !

. Select your payment method and key in the necessary information.

. Click "Postcard receipt" if you want to receive a postcard receipt. However, you must to pay EXTRA US$1.00 and you must also key in your postal address so that Kagi can contact you.

5. You can later chose to print out or save the Registration file. If you chose to print out the file, you can fax it to +1 510 652 6589 or snail-mail to

Kagi Shareware
1442-A Walnut Street PMB#392-U4Y
Berkeley, California,
94709-1405 USA

Once Kagi processes your payment, which takes up to a week from when they receive it, they e-mail you a message with the subject "Thanks for your payment" as a receipt. (If you do not have an e-mail address, you should check the "Postcard Receipt" box.) If you do not receive this message, contact Kagi at admin@kagi.com

. If you chose to save the file. Please attached the "Registration" file into your email and send it to shareware@kagi.com Once Kagi processes your payment, which takes up to a week from when they receive it, they e-mail you a message with the subject "Thanks for your payment" as a receipt. (If you do not have an e-mail address, you should check the "Postcard Receipt" box.) If you do not receive this message, contact Kagi at admin@kagi.com

Please note that Kagi Shareware is only a registration service, NOT a software publisher. If you have questions or comments about Extension Overload, you should contact me directly by Internet e-mail.