*[1]#[2]$[3]+[4]K[5]Contents

Help to Manual

This is a sample project to demonstrate the use of the Export Wizard, Help to Manual feature.

Part One

n   Bullet

Part Two

The End

Notice that the generated manual has the parts One and Two inserted before the end of the contents Topic.

Test

1BuildAll
2CONTENTS
3CONTENTS
4index:00001
5;CONTENTS;

*[6]#[7]$[8]+[9]K[10]Part One

This Topic will be inserted where Part One jump label is in the contents screen. This will give the exported file the look and feel of a manual. This proccess is a cascading process and to best view it generate the outline report and view the structure of the outline.

6BuildAll
7PART_ONE
8PART ONE
9index:00002
10;PART ONE;

*[11]#[12]$[13]+[14]K[15]Part Two

After the Manual is generated, you can import it into any word processor that supports Rich Text Format .RTF files and edit the file for final refinements, also you can generate a Table of contents based on the styles using any good word processor two.

11BuildAll
12PART_TWO
13PART TWO
14index:00003
15;PART TWO;