Why You Should Register

now offers the opportunity for you to register your copy of . Here's why:

As a reasonable guess, around 1200 hours of work have gone into it here the Wonderworks. This is a non-trivial amount.

Most of the e-mail received outside the KEW.COM domain is now related to . This, combined with the major intra-domain e-mail requirements for KEW.COM having gone away, threatens to make its own perpetual motion machine: we maintain to stay in touch with the outside world, and the outside world sends us mail about maintaining .

It is an accepted fact that the original UUPC was not written by , and that others have written numerous additional features including UUCP, UUX, and pending features including support for the "f" protocol and news. What is not as clear is the work done here which goes into integrating and polishing these features. Because of work done here, people can take the work done all over world and use it by unpacking a few files.

Ryder rents trucks, Avis tries harder, MIT wins the Yale/Harvard game, and hunts bugs. Lots of bugs: bugs from the dawn of UUPC, bugs from other people's code, and even bugs we introduced (Ooops). A second system is maintained here primarily for providing downloading services to others via anonymous UUCP and for hunting bugs. Only RAID kills more bugs. We also integrate bug fixes from other people, so those few files we give to others to unpack not only have more features but also bug fixes.

Bug hunting can be a bitch, and writing documentation is worse. has done both gratis for two years. Beginning with release 1.11m, the documentation has been expanded, and will be further enhanced to make the package easier to use. This does not benefit the internal users; we know how it works, and don't need the documents.

Because if you register, we can buy more chocolate ice cream for Snuffles.

The short version of the above is you have the package; what you can optionally pay for is additional enhancements and support by the creatures most knowledgeable about . However, we would rather you used an unregistered copy of our package than used someone else's inferior package.

The owner of kendra.kew.com is marrying the owner of athena.kew.com in October, 1992. Thus, the transcontinental UUPC/extended link previously used by the happy couple has been replaced by an Ethernet. Send congratulations to binkley@kew.com, our resident ether bunny.

And as an added bonus

Send us anything and Snuffles will think you're wonderful.

Send us $20 and we'll mail you the official support telephone number. We'll even return your phone calls in the United States.

Send us $40 and we'll mail the official support number and, when available, the next major release of on floppies.

Send us $50 and we'll mail the official support number, the next major release of when available, and throw in a hard copy of the documentation.

Send us $100 and we'll mail the official support number, the next major release of when available, throw in a hard copy of the documentation, and have you committed to the sanitarium of your choice.

Corporations cannot be committed to sanitariums, but we will take your money. Use the above schedule for each contact person, and add $10 for each additional node supported. For example, XYZ Systems Corp. has one contact person who calls the Wonderworks for support ($50), and one backup contact at a secondary location ($20). They want the docs so that they can distribute them to 10 different UUPC nodes scattered around the company ($10 each). The primary contact person figures out how to get a contribution to Snuffles' Chocolate Ice Cream Fund past accounting ($1). XYZ Systems would thus send us a check for $171.

We will invoice corporations on request.
