ANNEX 308.3

For purposes of this Annex:

local area network apparatus means a good dedicated for use solely or principally to permit the interconnection of automatic data processing machines and units thereof for a network that is used primarily for the sharing of resources such as central processor units, data storage devices and input or output units, including in-line repeaters, converters, concentrators, bridges and routers, and printed circuit assemblies for physical incorporation into automatic data processing machines and units thereof suitable for use solely or principally with a private network, and providing for the transmission, receipt, error-checking, control, signal conversion or correction functions for non-voice data to move through a local area network.

ANNEX 311.2

Existing Customs User Fees

Section A - Mexico

Mexico shall not increase its customs processing fee ("derechos de trmite aduanero") on originating goods, and shall by June 30, 1999, eliminate such fee on originating goods.

Mexico B - United States

1. The United States shall not increase its merchandise processing fee and shall eliminate such fee according to the schedule set out in Article 403 of the Canada - United States Free Trade Agreement on originating goods where those goods qualify to be marked as goods of Canada pursuant to Annex 312, without regard to whether the goods are marked.
2. The United States shall not increase its merchandise processing fee and shall by June 30, 1999, eliminate such fee, on originating goods where those goods qualify to be marked as goods of Mexico pursuant to Annex 312, without regard to whether the goods are marked.

Country of Origin Marking

1. The Parties shall establish by January 1, 1994, rules for determining whether a good is a good of a Party ("Marking Rules") for the purposes of this Annex, Annex 300-B and Annex 302.2, and for such other purposes as may be agreed.
2. Each Party may require that a good of another Party, as determined in accordance with the Marking Rules, imported into its territory bear a country of origin marking that indicates to the ultimate purchaser of that good the name of its country of origin.
3. Each Party shall permit the country of origin marking of a good of another Party to be indicated in English, French or Spanish, except that a Party may, as part of its general consumer information measures, require that an imported good be marked with its country of origin in the same manner as prescribed for goods of that Party.

4. Each Party shall, in adopting, maintaining and administering any measure relating to country of origin marking, minimize the difficulties, costs and inconveniences that such measure may cause to the commerce and industry of the other Parties.

5. Each Party shall:

(a) accept any reasonable method of marking, including the use of stickers, labels, tags or paint, that ensures that the marking is conspicuous, legible and sufficiently permanent;

(b) exempt from a country of origin marking requirement a good of another Party which

(i) is incapable of being marked,

(ii) cannot be marked prior to exportation to the territory of another Party without causing injury to the goods,

(iii) cannot be marked except at an expense which would materially discourage its exportation to the territory of another Party,

(iv) cannot be marked without materially impairing its function or substantially detracting from its appearance,

(v) is in a container that is marked in a manner that will reasonably indicate the good's origin to the ultimate purchaser,

(vi) is a crude substance,

(vii) is imported for use by the importer and is not intended for sale in the form in which it was imported,

(viii) is to be processed in the importing Party by the importer, or on its behalf, in a manner that results in a change of origin for marking purposes, under the Marking Rules,

(ix) by reason of its character, or the circumstances of its importation, the ultimate purchaser would reasonably know its country of origin even though it is not marked,

(x) was produced more than 20 years prior to its importation,

(xi) was imported without the required marking and cannot be marked after its importation except at an expense that would materially discourage its importation, provided that the failure to mark the good before importation was not for the purpose of avoiding compliance with such requirement,

(xii) for the purposes of temporary duty-free admission, is in transit or in bond or otherwise under customs administration control,

(xiii) is an original work of art, or

(xiv) is provided for in headings 8541 or 8542, and 6904.10.

6. Except for a good described in subparagraphs 5(b)(vi),(vii), (viii), (ix), (x), (xii), (xiii) and (xiv), a Party may provide that, wherever a good is exempted under subparagraph 5(b), its outermost container that ordinarily reaches the ultimate purchaser shall be marked so as to indicate the country of origin of the good it contains.

7. Each Party shall provide that:

(a) a usual container imported empty, whether or not disposable, shall not be required to be marked with its own country of origin, but the container in which it is imported may be required to be marked with the country of origin of its contents; and

(b) a usual container imported filled, whether or not disposable,

(i) shall not be required to be marked with its own country of origin, but

(ii) may be required to be marked with the country of origin of its contents, unless the contents are marked with their country of origin and the container can be readily opened for inspection of the contents, or the marking of the contents is clearly visible through the container.

8. Each Party shall, whenever administratively practicable, permit an importer to mark a good subsequent to importation but prior to release of the good from customs control or custody, unless there have been repeated violations of the country of origin marking requirements of that Party by the same importer and that importer has been previously notified in writing that such good is required to be marked prior to importation.

9. Each Party shall provide that, except with respect to importers that have been notified under paragraph 8, no special duty or penalty shall be imposed for failure to comply with country of origin marking requirements, unless a good is removed from customs custody or control without being properly marked, or a deceptive marking has been used.

10. The Parties shall cooperate and consult on matters related to this Annex, including additional exemptions from a country of origin marking requirement, in accordance with Chapter Five (Customs Procedures).

11. For purposes of this Annex:

conspicuous means capable of being easily seen with normal handling of the good or container;

legible means capable of being easily read;

materially discourage means add a cost to the good that is substantial in relation to its customs value;

sufficiently permanent means capable of remaining in place until the good reaches the ultimate purchaser, unless deliberately removed;

the form in which it was imported means the condition of the good before it has undergone one of the changes in tariff classification described in the Marking Rules;

ultimate purchaser means the last person in the territory of the Party into which the good is imported that purchases the good in the form in which it was imported; such purchaser need not be the last person that will use the good; and

(a) to limit to domestic consumers the benefits of a domestic food assistance program with respect to such foodstuff; or

(b) to ensure the availability of sufficient quantities of such foodstuff to domestic consumers or of sufficient quantities of its ingredients, or of the goods from which such foodstuffs are derived, to a domestic processing industry, when the domestic price of such foodstuff is held below the world price as part of a governmental stabilization plan, provided that such duty, tax, or other charge

(i) does not operate to increase the protection afforded to such domestic industry, and

(ii) is maintained only for such period of time as is necessary to maintain the integrity of the stabilization plan.

2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, Mexico may adopt or maintain a duty, tax, or other charge on the export of any foodstuff to the territory of another Party if such duty, tax, or other charge is temporarily applied to relieve critical shortages of that foodstuff.
