Vector Field:

paste_10.tiff ¬

Clicking the Turn Vector Field ON button creates vector field   in the main window with the selected grid spacing.   Each arrow represents the magnitude and direction of the field at that point in the window.

Changing the center position and scale of the view in the main window allows the user to adjust the quality of the vector field.