Check the Use cache for file transfers box to speed up file transfers over local area networks.

File transfers using cache are only available for connections with SpeedShare Pro Servers.

NOTE: Cache will not be used for compressed or encrypted file transfers, because little speed improvement can be gained under these circumstances. In order to take advantage of cache for file transfers over local area networks, connections must be made with the Compress Files and Encrypt Files options not checked.