To save the password for the connection in the Preferences, check the Save Password box.

Passwords are saved in encrypted form in the Preferences, so they cannot be read by others.

If the Save Password box is not checked, the password will be requested when the connection is attempted.