

BETRAYED - (05:41)

Stalking the streets for a subject to inflict
Behold the person of your choice, weapon in hand
Stealthfully walking up behind them, insert the blade
Blood so sticky, it colors your face and pants
Gasping for air, they die from a puncture wound to their lung
Coughing up blood while they lie on the ground
Laughing in insanity you twist the corpse over on their back
Lustfully ravaging what was left of the innocence

Life's so precious, but you take it like a drug
Morally wrong of your actions, you do it again that night
Mind program erased, your failed to conceive the objective
Slam your hand down into their face, defecate on her soul

The perils of one man's bond
Is another man's nightmare
The screams of another victim
Is the drive you yearn to accept

No one adjusts to brutality
You have no recollection
Accusations of mutilation
Brings you to demise

One more life
How can you live with yourself?
Another defiled soul
How can you live with yourself?

(Solo #1, #2)

You take their souls
But you can't accept the fact you're mad
You throw away
Their whole fucking life
Slaughter, breed
And cannibalize their corpse
Murderer of children
You're just known as Citizen X

The perils of one man's bond
Is another man's nightmare
The screams of another victim
Is the drive you yearn to accept

No one adjusts to brutality
You have no recollection
Accusations of mutilation
Brings you to demise

You betrayed the code of life
How can you live with yourself?
Another sacrifice
How can you live with yourself?
