The Group Matches

In the first phase of the World Cup, 24 teams play in six groups of four teams each.

Each team plays once against each of the other teams in its group. The winner of each match receives three points, and the loser none. If the match is drawn, each team receives one point. The two best teams in each group qualify for the last sixteen.

The four best third-placed teams from the six groups also go through.

See also:

The Final Rounds

The Teams in the World Cup

The Qualification System

The Commands in the Groups Menu

The Qualification System

When all six matches in a group have been played, the teams are placed first to fourth in the group according to the number of points they have won. A team receives two points for each match it wins, one point for a draw and no point for a match it loses.

If two or more teams in the group have the same number of points, the team with the better goal difference (goals for minus goals against) comes first. If two or more teams have the same number of points and the same goal difference, the team that has scored most goals comes first. If two teams have the same number of points, goal difference and goals scored, the team that won the match between these two teams comes first. If the match between these two teams ended in a draw, lots are drawn.

The first two teams in each group qualify for the last sixteen. The four best third-placed teams also go through. If two or more third-placed teams have the same number of points, the team with the better goal difference (goals for minus goals against) is favored. If two or more teams have the same number of points and the same goal difference, the team that has scored most goals is favored. If two teams are still level, lots are drawn.

The Group Matches

The Final Rounds

Entering the Results of Lot Drawing

The Final Rounds

The rounds from the last sixteen to the final are played on a knockout basis. If a match is a draw after 90 minutes, 2 x 15 minutes of extra time is played. If the scores are still level after extra time, the match is decided by penalty kicks.

The Last Sixteen

In this round, the first two teams from each group and the four best third-placed teams play 8 matches. The winners of these 8 matches qualify for the quarter-finals.

The Quarter-Finals

The eight winners from the previous round play in the four quarter-finals. The winners of these matches qualify for the semi-finals.

The Semi-Finals

The winners of the quarter-finals play in the semi-finals. The winners of these two matches play in the final to determine the World Cup winners and runner-up. The losers of the semi-finals play off for third place.

Entering Match Results

To enter match results:

Open the Matches menu.

Click the relevant match category.

Move the selection bar to the relevant match and click the Edit button.

Enter the result of the match and click the OK button.

Warning: Since the program determines which teams qualify for the next round on the basis of the match results you enter, it is important that you enter them correctly. You should take particular care not to change the results of previous rounds, except where this is unavoidable, since this can result in other teams qualifying for the subsequent rounds and the deletion of results you have already entered for these rounds.

Note: When you enter the results of group matches, the placings of the teams in each group and of the third-placed teams relative to each other are recalculated and reanalyzed so as to determine as soon as possible the teams that have qualified for the last sixteen. Since the calculations are complex, this may take some time.

Entering the Results of Lot Drawing

Once the group matches have been played, there are two situations in which it may be necessary to draw lots to decide which teams qualify for the last sixteen:

1. When two or more teams in a group tie for a place
2. When it is not possible to determine which are the four best third-placed teams

To enter the result of lot drawing for the placings within a group:

Choose the group from the Groups menu.

Click the Lots button.

To enter the result of lot drawing for the four best third-placed teams:

Choose Third-Placed Teams from the Groups menu.

Click the Lots button.

Performing Analyses

The program can perform two types of analyses of the current state of events to indicate how the World Cup might develop:

1. Internal Group Analyses:

Before all the matches in a group have been played, you can have the program calculate on the basis of the existing results the best place each team in the group can reach, the worst place it can reach, and the best place it can reach by its own efforts (i.e. when all matches in which it does not play have the worst possible outcome for it).

In addition, if not more than two group matches are still to be played, the program can calculate the results required in the remaining matches for the teams to finish in a specified order.

2: Cross-Group Analyses for Third-Placed Teams

The program can analyse the data of all groups in order to determine the minimum number of points the third-placed team in each group will obtain, the maximum number of points this team can obtain, and whether it is certain, possible or impossible that this team will qualify for the last sixteen.

Note: For matches that are yet to be played, only results with not more than 10 goals per team are considered to be possible for the purposes of the analysis.

To display the analysis for the teams in a group:

Choose the relevant group from the Groups menu and then click the Analysis button.

To display the analysis for the third-placed teams:

Choose Third-Placed Teams from the Groups menu.
