Overview

Nihongo Sensei is a program written in Windows that displays a word in Japanese characters and uses the soundcard to say the word at the same time. The user inputs vocabulary words to study and the program creates a quiz. The program can also print quizzes with scores, edit quizzes in Japanese, and keep statistics of progress. The user can concentrate on certain words for repeated practice based on previous scores. The program is designed to teach Japanese vocabulary words with both visual and auditory prompts.

Take a Quiz

Purpose

To show Japanese words in a quiz and have user input English

Overview

The two percentage bars on the screen keep track of your progress. The top one keeps your score on the current quiz. The bottom one shows how well you know the current word. For example if you have missed the word 'sakana' five times and got it right once the bottom bar would show 1 of 6.

Steps

- 1. Start at the main screen
- 2. Double click on a quiz on the left
- 3. When the quiz windows appears type the English translation for the displayed word
- 4. Repeat step three until the button says done
- 5. Choose done

New Quiz

Purpose

To give a new quiz a filename and description

Steps

- 1. Start at the main screen
- 2. Click New Quiz
- 3. Type a DOS filename on the right and an 80 character description on the left
- 4. Choose OK
- 5. Edit your new quiz (See Edit Quiz)

Edit Quiz

Purpose

To allow the user to edit Japanese and English translations in the quiz.

Overview

The grid shows the words you have in the current quiz. To change a translation click on the word and type in a new word. The Japanese hiragana cannot be editing directly, instead use the change the romaji. Clicking update will update the hiragana to match the romaji.

Commands

Update	Changes all hiragana to match the romaji
Save	Saves the quiz
Delete Problem	Deletes the translation the cursor is on
Quiz Name	Change the quiz's 80 character description
Clear Scores	Clears users statistics on quiz
Exit	Returns to main screen

Romaji Conversion Chart

The following is a list of the romaji arranged in rows of sounds. To seperate ambiguous phrases use a period.
