

Repeat the same thing with the “Selling price” node to create a link between “Selling price” and “Revenue”. The resulting diagram should contain two edges pointing into the “Revenue” node.

By the way, you can delete an edge again by dragging the start node onto the finish node. Moreover, you can reverse an edge by dragging the finish node onto the start node.