

Testing the model

We may test the input and the output value of each node before we start a simulation just to check that the model contains the correct input values and settings. To do this we select the “Revenue” node and click the “Q-test” (Quicktest) button on the toolbar.

A dialog box should appear.