

Window commands

The last menu items of the “Windows” menu change according to the titles of the open windows. Thus, if e.g., you have three open windows called “Window 1”, “Window 2” and “Window 3”, then you will find three menu items too with the same names. By selecting say “Window 2” you make this window the active and frontmost window.