

Besides making your model files more attractive, pictures can also be used as custom navigation “buttons” within your model. This is done as follows:

- 1) Create a picture object in a DynRisk model file. If you want to use it as a button, it may be a good idea to use a picture that looks like such an object.