

The next thing that needs to be done, is to calculate the duration of Activity 3. This done by generating a random number from the distribution we specified for Activity 3, and multiplying this by the local factor. We assume that the result of this is 14.5 days.