

The “Export options...” dialog box is used to set export preferences. These preferences affect the format of exported files. In particular you can choose which attributes you want to include when you export a DynRisk model.

The dialog box is split up into three different views:

- RTF
- Text only
- Schedule

To select a particular view, you click on its corresponding icon in the icon bar at the left-hand side of the dialog box.