

This field indicates the graphic height (if there is one) of the current calendar. This number plus the body height below must be less than the maximum height above.