I am happy to help people with BulkRate. I am very bad at answering snail mail and I don't usually like to be called at home, which is why I recommend that you ask me questions online.

You may post questions in the BulkRate conference available on OneNet, or send me questions at my Internet e-mail address: greg_neagle@pop.com. I may also be reached on America Online as GregNeagle, and on Digital Popcorn and LAMG BBS as Greg Neagle.
