Welcome to Power Players!

Power Players is a game in which you and the other players control the future of seven energy companies! You control the creation, growth and ultimately, the existance of these companies. See the rules for complete details.

Power players is designed to run on a Mac Plus or later running system software 6.0.4 or later. It will run in color on any system with 256 or more colors; otherwise it will run in black and white.

Power Players is shareware. Thus, if you use and like this program, please send $10 to:
