

The last button, with a stylized man figure, is used to control your character's equipment. When you click it, the character's silhouette appears. White squares indicate places where equipment can be carried. You'll have to drag and drop the item's icons onto the squares.

Please, go on: we'll soon find some items to play with.