

CS Tester Help

The product

CS Tester is a Control Strip Module. It allows to launch and close another Control Strip Module without having to restart your computer. This is really useful when you want to try a new module or for developers who have to make thousand of tests.

Installation

The installation is really easy. Just drop the icon "CS Tester" inside the folder "Control Strip Modules". Be aware to not drop the icon on the System folder, because the Finder will place it correctly. Now, just restart your computer.

How to use

CS Tester search for another module named "Testing Module" inside the folder "Control Strip Modules". Note that it could be also an alias to the module to test. Now, just choose "Launch "Testing Module"" or "Close "Testing Module"" to launch or close respectively the "Testing Module".

Price and registering

CS Tester is distributed with the Shareware principle. There is a 10 day trial period, after which you must register your copy using the "Register" application that came with this module. The cost is only US$ 15.

I'm using the "Kagi" payment agent which is only dealing with financial transactions. For all questions, communicate with me with one of the address in the Contact section, below.

It is now possible to the Kagi secure site to register your module. If you are interested, go with your Web browser to the URL:

<https://kagi.direct.net/cgi-bin/register1.cgi?FQ> (secure)
