Driver Definitions

Note: A Drive is specialized software designed to act as an interface between a program and a particular device

       [Text] = Field only exists under given circumstance

- Driver# = Reference number of the driver
  - ◊ Name = Driver name, always preceded by a period
  - ◊ Version = Version of driver
  - ◊ PPC Native = Is driver code written for PowerPC
    - + Category = Category code
    - + Service = Type of service code
    - + Description = Name Registry description
  - ◊ Type = What it provides support for
  - ◊ Interface = Interface type of driver
  - ◊ SCSI# = Number of SCSI device [SCSI Driver]
  - ◊ Slot# = Slot Number of card which it may support
  - ◊ Unit# = Position which the device occupies in the unit table
  - ◊ Status = Open/Closed
  - ◊ Location = ROM/RAM
  - ◊ Address = Hex address of driver
  - ◊ Original Flags Enabled = Flags which were active when the driver was loaded.   These flags provide information about how the operating system should interact with the driver
  - ◊ Current Flags Enabled =Flags which are currently active