To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing to recommend Jessica Cooper, Burch Elementary School Speech Pathologist from Mingo County Schools, to be chosen as an employee for your organization.

Ms. Cooper is an excellent speech teacher who inspires her students. She plans lessons which keep her students engaged and give them confidence. As a speech teacher, she uses all materials and resources available to her as a teacher to reach each student. She understands her students and demonstrates an excellent rapport with them. She uses her subject matter to include various types of manipulative to enhance student learning. She keeps the materials and work of the students challenging yet enjoyable. Through her teaching, students are confident and they understand the concepts taught on any given day.

Ms. Cooper has an excellent understanding of teaching speech pedagogy. She shares her insight with her peers. Teachers are always looking to her for creative ideas and appreciate her passion for student learning. Jessica Cooper is a caring teacher who would be an asset to any given organization.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Deborah Starr
