- I am student at Dallas High School, enrolled in a student activity, for which it is necessary for me to drive my own vehicle. I understand that the school district carries no automobile liability insurance for me, my vehicle, or any passenger of my vehicle, when I am driving to another location as a part of a student activity.
- I represent that my vehicle is covered by automobile liability insurance as required by Oregon law.
- I presently carry a valid license for driving a motor vehicle.
- The signature of my parent or guardian acknowledge that they also have the understanding that the district has no liability for the vehicle that I drive while in this activity, or for any claim for property damage, bodily injury or death arising from or relating to my operation of the vehicle.
