

This Week's Events

Turkey Fact: Turkeys are the only breed of poultry native to the Western Hemisphere.

TODAY

- JV Knowledge Bowl Playoffs
- Homework Help with Mr. Willard
- Open Computer Lab
- ALC
- JH Band/Choir Concert - 7pm

WEDNESDAY

- Ms. Hosna's mentor group meets at 8:15am
- Varsity Knowledge Bowl practice-2nd lunch
- NO ALC

THURSDAY & FRIDAY

- No School - Thanksgiving Break!

JH concert this evening at 7:00 pm. You get in free with one non-perishable food item for the food shelf.

Homework Help will be with Mr. Willard's room.

Attention ALC students: Please attend your classes tonight as there will be no ALC tomorrow.

CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT: there will be a cribbage tournament held in Room 109 (Steve's room) from 3:30 - 5:30 tomorrow. It's open to all staff members and all students in grades 7-12. It will be a doubles (2 people per team) tournament. Prizes will be awarded for 1st-4th place in each class. Snacks, cribbage boards and cards will be provided. Sign up in the high school office or in Room 109. You must be signed up by 12:30 today to play.

Congrats Ms. J's mentor group on their pie-baking endeavors. They made 8 pumpkin pies, 6 apple (from scratch) 3 banana cream, 2 peanut butter chocolate, 4 french silk, 2 pumpkin cheesecakes, 3 strawberry jello pies, 1 pecan pie and 1 cherry pie, plus pumpkin bars and cupcakes for the sports banquet. Ms. J's group couldn't have done it without Ms. Hosna, Ms. Burg, and Mrs. Doten, who's the pie-making queen, by the way. The residents of pioneer villa are really going to enjoy! Ms. J's group, meet at 2:45 in the home ec room to deliver today!

Varsity Knowledge Bowl: Practice will be during the HS Lunch period tomorrow in Dr. Baumgardt's room.

Ms. Hosna's mentor group will be meeting tomorrow morning at 8:15 in her classroom.

Speech team- if you do not have your permission slips in and fees in- you CANNOT practice until they are in. If you miss a practice it is up to YOU to reschedule. I will not contact you about it. Mrs. Maine. Slips not in yet are: Lexi Campbell, Ben Fistere, Billy Staska & Averie Seibert come see Mrs. Maine

Students have until TOMORROW to make up incompletes. After that time, the grade will be an "F". Honor roll will be posted on that day.

The sophomore class is having a Thanksgiving pop sale fundraiser. Buy a can of pop and a card from the sophomores in the commons during both lunch hours for only $1 and show your friends that you are thankful for them!! The pop will be delivered tomorrow during 7th hour. All proceeds go to support this year's Sweetheart activities.

Band/choir Students - If you checked out candy weeks ago and still haven't turned anything in, we expect you to turn in candy or money by TOMORROW or that amount will be subtracted from your band/choir accounts.

Adam from MN Grad Services will be here next Wednesday, the 30th, from 8:00-8:30am to deliver class rings. If you have a balance owed on your ring, you need to bring it to get your ring, otherwise, we'll keep it in the school safe until it's paid.

Starting next Thursday, Dec. 1, we'll be having a contest in the bulletin. I've asked all of our staff members to give me their very favorite Christmas present of all time. You guys have to match the gift with the staff member. First student to give me the right answer gets one of Deb's Christmas treats!