

.CO SUNRISE PROCESS FORMS EXPLANATION & OVERVIEW

Reconsideration Request

In accordance with .CO Sunrise policies, any Applicant may initiate a Sunrise Reconsideration Proceeding who does not agree with the Registry' assessment that:

- the Applicant is not the owner, licensee or assignee of the registered trademark on which the Sunrise Application is based upon;
- the domain name applied for is not identical to the trademark name as invoked in the Sunrise Application;
- the trademark invoked by an Applicant does not have national effect;
- the trademark invoked by an Applicant was registered after the 30th of July of 2008;
- the trademark invoked by the Applicant does not fulfill any of the other requirements as set out in the .CO Sunrise Rules.

Consequently, in order to initiate a Sunrise Reconsideration Proceeding, the applicant must complete the form "Sunrise Reconsideration" and send the completed and signed document to sunrisevalidation@networksolutions.com.

License Declaration

In case the Applicant is not the owner of the registered trademark invoked in the Application, but is a licensee of such a trademark, the Applicant must submit as documentary evidence a duly completed and executed license declaration.

The section regarding the Licensor refers to the trademark owner as registered with the trademark offices, while the section referring to the "Licensee" refers to the applicant.

In case a trademark owner has licensed several trademarks to a particular applicant, the trademark owner and the applicant may complete the form ".CO Sunrise License Declaration of TMS Template, 2010.

A completed and signed form should be sent to sunrisevalidation@networksolutions.com.

Transfer Declaration

An applicant must complete the transfer declaration, in the event that:

- the applicant is the co-owner of the owner of the registered trademark.
- the official name of the trademark owner has been changed, and such change has not been recorded with the competent trademark office.

The section regarding the Assignee relates to the Applicant, while all information related to trademark owner or co-owner must be completed under the section Assignor.

In case a trademark owner has transferred several trademarks to a particular applicant, the trademark owner and the applicant may complete the form ".CO Sunrise Assignee Declaration of TMS Template, 2010.

A completed and signed form should be sent to sunrisevalidation@networksolutions.com.
