

The script below simply demonstrates how to create a batch send droplet. The protocol zmodem could easily be changed to any of the other protocols ComLink supports.