This zine, The Midnight Raid, is meant to be as informative as possible with no pointless chapters, rants, and spam. Now in our third issue, I think we've blown out all of our competition (BL411, 2600, Phrack) in quality, quantity, and readership. Our prior copetitors (Happle and the rest of the mac zines) just don't have enough quality articles or graphics to compete with us. And now for our completely serious third issue, tMR3.

Enjoy,
The Marauder. (marauder@punkass.com)
Drop Dead Bacon. (poot@mac-addict.com)

Defect. (defect@thearmy.com)
Herbman H. Steinbean.
G.
Bubba.
Leon the Milkman
The rest of our many contributors.
