ow to Use Mac Net Journal
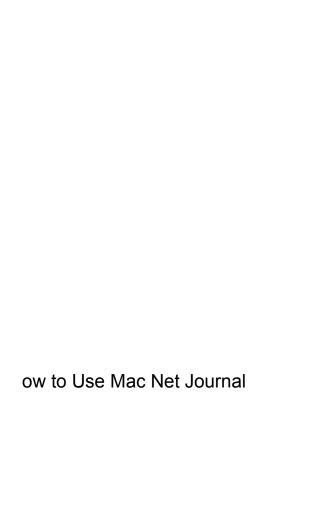

Mac Net Journal is an easy to use, easy to read multimedia product.   In the above table of contents, simply click on the chapter of interest and, boom, you're there.   At the bottom of each chapter is an icon to return to this page, the table of contents, or simply click on the horizontal scroll bar to go to the next or the previous page.   Scattered throughout each issue, you will find icons for programs we refer to.   Click on these icons for information about where the software is available at, usually an address to download it via anonymous FTP.
