

Star Scout Ceremony

(Scouts Name) in receiving your Star rank tonight you are taking a long step toward your Eagle, the goal of all true scouts.

You have advanced towards manhood in a way that obligates you to give younger scouts the service and experiences you have received.

Tonight you are leaving that group which receives scouting. You are now to be admitted to a smaller group whose privilege and duty is to give scouting - to give leadership, guidance and inspiration to younger scouts who will follow your lead.

Your willingness to do so will be a pledge of service and a sign that your understanding of the ideals of scouting is growing with increasing stature.

The fun and fellowship of the past will be accompanied in the future by a deep satisfaction with service to others and your leadership of younger Scouts.

Do you accept this pledge of service to younger Scouts as a personal obligation.
