

The link that is shown in the Link menu is the currently selected link. All operations to add and remove startup files will affect this link. Simply select a different link from the Link menu to change the selected link.

- Add Selected Files: The list of startup files on the right are able to be added to the current Link. Simply select the files you want and click this button.
- Remove Selected Files: Simply select the files you want to remove from the link and click this button to remove the files from the link.
- Add Custom File: To add a file to a link that is not currently installed in your system, click this button. You must specify the filename (exactly) and its folder.