Our First Sponsor!

IMG is pleased to recognize Changeling Software as our very first monthly sponsor. Changeling is best known for its flagship game, Pax Imperia, the galactic empire simulation. Pax Imperia casts you in the role of Emperor when your people are on the verge of entering the vast frontier of space. From among them you must choose a cabinet of six advisors to assist in managing the resources of your world. Then you determine what technologies to develop, allocate money and resources to develop colony ships, and send the seeds of civilization to the stars! Check out the complete review of Pax Imperia in the April issue of Inside Mac Games.
