

This October is Teletimes' first birthday!

And to highlight this special event, Teletimes will be featuring Creative Writing from our writers and hopefully readers as well. Also included will be some of Teletimes' best articles from from past year.

If you would like to submit any original poetry or short prose work for the next issue, just e-mail it to ian@breez.wimsey.com or mail it to Teletimes' mailing address (see page 3).
