The essential tool for Macintosh programmers. THINK Reference is an online guide that gives you instant access to the crucial information you need to program the Macintosh. Features include;
• Toolbox Routine descriptions from Inside Macintosh I-VI
• Information on AppleTalk, Slot Manager, and Sound Manager
• Extensive searching capabilities
• Cut and Paste Code examples that demonstrate proper use of code
• Multiple Tables of Contents let you search by trap names, mangers, eywords, data interfaces and structures
• Modular design through multiple databases lets you work with only hat you need
• Informative graphics, Tips and Technotes, and example code
• Built-in Help system

Think Reference Pricing;
1 copy; £49.00. 10 copies; £349.00. 25 copies; £799.00.