

MICROSOFT INTERNET EXPLORER 4.0 freeware

This is without a doubt the most awaited for Web Browser in history. Packed full of features it has been given terrific reviews from most of the leading magazines and computer analysts. It's big and requires a lot of disc space and a lot of memory.

To run Internet Explorer 4.0, your system must meet the following minimum requirements:

- A 486 with a 66 Mhz processor (Pentium processor recommended)
- For Microsoft Windows 95:
 - 8 MB of RAM minimum, 16 MB with Active Desktop
- For Microsoft Windows NT:
 - 16 MB of RAM minimum, 24 MB with Active Desktop
- For Microsoft Windows NT:
 - You must be running Service Pack 3 (or higher)
- 40 to 70 MB of hard-disk space (depending on installation type)
- Mouse
- Modem
- CD-ROM

This is Freeware.. brought to you by Microsoft