

Displacement-time graphs

By looking at a displacement-time graph for an object moving in a straight line, you can tell when it is stationary, when it is moving at a constant speed and in which direction, and when it is accelerating or slowing down.

These graphs show objects moving in a variety of ways. In each case, the direction left-to-right is positive.