Hello Everybody!

I am sorry, but this collection doesn't contain a detailed English guide, yet. The reason for this is that there doesn't seem to be a need for it, as there are only few reactions to my collection :-( I am sorry! However the next release could have such a big guide, it depends on you! Meanwhile you'll have to read this LITTLE text/guide instead, with everything IMPORTANT to know in it! What you're missing, are my comments on (almost) each of my icons... I think you will survive that ;-)

But now to the important stuff:

- Table Of Contents
- Status
- My address (to write or to contact me):
- Garantee
- Legal Stuff
- New Drawer (X-Stuff)

1.7 New Drawer (X-Stuff)

This drawer contains a palette which helps you converting your dock-brushes, so that you can use them on a Un*x system, e.g. at your university. The palette was chosen to give those brushes a nice look using them with a monochrom (b/w-dithering) Monitor :-). Just load the palette into your paint programme, then load a brush and save it again with the new palette. You now only have to change the format of the brush into one which is compatible to a Un*x system (e.g. XBM). Don't worry this sound much more complicated and uncomfortable than it really is... It even contains some entries, which will (if you are using FVWM) bring up the look of such buttons which a MUI-Application would have (The three dimensional look is based on SysiHack © by Christoph Feck). Just replace the old definitions by the new ones and in a flash you will have your familiar look back (of course you will then have to add functions to them afterwards). For those of you who want a quick test, they can just try mine, they are also included here (ButtonFunctions).
***WARNING*** If you don't know exactly how to handle the .fvwmrc then please leave it unchanged, as it should be edited with the same caution as you would edit your startup-sequence on your AMIGA!!!

NOTE: Let me know what you think about this AMIGA-X-feeling!

1.8 Credits

At first I'd like to thank TREVOR MORRIS, as he was the first one who sent me a postcard (Look out for his Icon-Archives 'MWBStuff4.lha' and 'MWB_DOpus_7.lha' to get more nice MWB-Icons...)!

Special thanks to ROMAN PATZNER for his Postcard (I am honoured :) Well, I don't have to tell you about his RomIcons, do I? :-)

More thanks go to Stephan Sürken for his Text2Guide, which was a big help creating both GUIDES :-)

Further more I'd like to thank those who sent me an email (in order of reception):

- Trevor Morris (Canada - For his nice "Mail-Chats")
- Guy Tanner (United Kingdom)
- Steffen Helfrich (Germany)

- Tony Scott (USA)
- Jean-Marc Xiume (France)
- "Les Simms" (USA)
- Ron Burman (West Australia)

Missing YOUR name on this list? Yes? Well, then just contact me...

1.9 History

NOTE: I am sorry about all those small updates, but I always try to improve these icons. And if I am satisfied then there might be a major update (containing only new icons, NOT newicons ;).
