

Although Zenith Rand's final adventure, "Angels of Oorn," appeared in the October 1936 issue of MYSTERY ADVENTURE MAGAZINE, Richard Tooker takes a backseat in making this issue collectible for science fiction fans--as well as Scientologists--since it also featured L. Ron Hubbard's story, "Flaming Arrows." Also putting in an appearance is Doc Savage author William Bogart. Together with Saunders' fine cover, featuring action, exotic background and beautiful babe, this was a pulp!
