

H.J. Ward supplies a very nice cover to the May 1935 issue of SPICY ADVENTURE STORIES, which is, however, unusual in that the only figure on the cover is a girl, she's not showing any leg, and she's not being menaced. The dagger clutched in her hand, however, creates the impression of danger, while her outfit calls to mind the mysterious East.