

Winds of the World Press published a series of chapbooks in the mid-1980's reprinting material from the spicy pulps. Perhaps the strangest of these is THE SPICY OF LIFE! (which was published in 1987). Very often, the spicy pulps would include a black and white depiction of the cover for the next issue. THE SPICY OF LIFE! collects 50 of these pseudo-covers, including 14 from the pages of SPICY MYSTERY STORIES.
