

In what apparently was meant to be a play on words, the cover to the December 1937 issue of SAUCY MOVIE TALES illustrates "Cast A Net For Lovers" by Frank E. Marks. Lars Anderson follows up "Sins of Hollywood!" in the previous issue with yet another story worthy of the use of an exclamation point, "Behind the Screen!". The use of exclamation points on the covers, however, pales when compared to their use inside the lurid stories printed inside.
