Don't Let The Small Size Fool You.

PalmPilot gives you all the power and features you need to organize your busy life. There's a datebook and address book with room for thousands of entries, to do lists, memo pad, e-mail,* calculator, expense tracking and more. Wherever you go, it's easy to find what you need to stay organized.

Enter data just once, in 3 convenient ways.

PalmPilot never makes you repeat yourself. Enter data once, at your desktop, or on your organizer.

1. Write with Graffitti for nearly 100% accuracy at speeds up to 30 words per minute.

2. Enter information using your desktop computer's keyboard, then push HotSync to transfer it to your PalmPilot.

3. Use PalmPilot's on-screen keyboard.

The minute you step outside your home or office, that's when life really gets interesting. With PalmPilot Personal Edition and PalmPilot Professional Edition connected organizers, it's easier than ever to stay on top of it all. Small, smart, easy-to-use and totally connected, PalmPilot is the best value in personal organization, anywhere.

Store Everything.

With PalmPilot, everything you need for complete organization is just a tap away. Tap once to see your day's agenda (our back-lit screens make it easy, even in low light), recurring meetings, notes and alarms. Tap again to find names, numbers and addresses. Tap once more to create to do lists, sort tasks and check-off what you've accomplished. There's a calculator, a notepad, games, and a lot more. It may be small, but you'll be amazed at just how big PalmPilot's organizing power is.

Always Expandable And Upgradeable.

It's easy to get more from your PalmPilot organizer. Add third-party applications, games, databases and forms to use your PalmPilot in new ways. Attach the PalmPilot Modem to stay connected when you're on the road. PalmPilot's expandable design means you'll be able to update and enhance your PalmPilot for years to come.

One Touch Keeps You In Touch.

Think of PalmPilot as a window to your important information. With a touch of the HotSync™ button on the included docking cradle, all the information on your organizer and your desktop computer is synchronized in seconds.

Make fast backups and archives to secure your data. Export expense items from your PalmPilot right into an Excel spreadsheet. Whether you use the desktop software we provide or one of the dozens of popular personal information management (PIM) applications,† PalmPilot makes it easy to organize your life, your way.

It may be hard to find the time to deal with e-mail* at the office, but it's easy to carry it with you on the PalmPilot Professional Edition. Just press the HotSync button to have your new e-mail downloaded to your organizer. Then read mail, compose messages, write responses, even delete messages you don't need. The next time you HotSync, your mailbox is updated and all your messages are routed to their destinations, automatically.

More Connectivity Options.

For even more connectivity power, your PalmPilot Professional Edition can link with your desktop computer over dial-up, local-area and wide-area networks with Network HotSync.† We've even included TCP/IP software so as Internet applications are created, you can link there too.

The Ideal Companion For Busy Business People.

Small, lightweight, totally connected–and a great value! PalmPilot Professional Edition is perfect for mobile executives and salespeople. With comprehensive e-mail and network connectivity, PalmPilot offers the best return on your organizational investment anywhere.
