

Contents

The installation of JobSpecific is very straight forward. At the time of installation the program file and its help file are placed into the directory you indicate. A Windows Program Manager group called JobSpecific is created and the program and help file icons are placed within it

Current (temporary) Directory

The directory where the installation files are currently located.

Directory to install JobSpecific into

Indicates the directory into which you wish to install JobSpecific.

Begin Install

Installs JobSpecific into the directory you have indicated.

Cancel Install

Stops the installation process and closes the setup program.

Help

Brings you to this help file.

