Personal data: Ludger Solbach

Age: 26 (yet)
Height: 1.96 m
Weight: about 90 kg
Hair color: fair

Address: Grimmestraße 5
33098 Paderborn
Germany

Curriculum vitae (short form :-):

I was born in Arnsberg, grew up in Sundern in the beautiful Sauerland. It's there where I passed my graduation at a gymnasium, and after a short stop at the camouflage guys I have now landed in Paderborn where I study computer science at the university of Paderborn.

Projects

The first larger project:
"Amiga Route", a driving route planner

Currently I am working on version 2.0 which will hopefully be finished in autumn (1995 :-).

An older version can be found on Aminet in misc/misc.

Likes:

programming and also playing then and now
listening to music (New Wave, Industrial, Irish Folk, ...),
I'm pretty flexible about it.
Travel to Ireland (will do so again in August :).
Good food, preferably italian
A cool beer, a fresh Veltins.
Good pubs, parties.

Dislikes:

Badly coded games that would only run on an A500 with at most 512 KB RAM and without harddisk *grrr*.
