

To compress a picture:

1. Choose Compression Settings from the Image menu and indicate the settings you want.

If you're not sure what settings to choose, use the default settings. For details about the settings, see "Changing Compression Settings."

2. Click OK.
3. Make sure the picture you want is the active window. Click in the window to make it active.