Comparing compression statistics:

For each picture, click in the window to make it active and choose Get Image Info from the Image menu.

An Image Info window opens for each picture, allowing you to compare compression statistics.

For details about each item in the Image Info window, see the topic "Getting Information About a Picture."