To choose the level of color to be used in the compressed image:

1. Choose Compression Settings from the Image menu.

2. Choose a color setting from the Color pop-up menu.

You can experiment with different settings and compare results.

Using more colors produces a larger image file.