

To control the effect of compression on image quality:

1. Choose Compression Settings from the Image menu.
2. Drag the Quality slider to the desired position, from Least to Most.

As you drag, some positions on the slider control may be skipped, depending on the current compressor and level of color.